

I do not believe Traffic and Weather alerts should be considered local content, prohibited from XM radio. Not allowing traffic and weather information on XM could result in great bodily injury to a XM listener. For example a tornado warning for their area and they are not aware of it, could lead to that person's injury or death.